

To Whom It May Concern:

I recently attended the workshop "Creative thinking – interesting points of view" led by Magdalena Nowacka from RTC Professional (Cracow, October 16th 2009).

I would like to recommend this workshop to anyone who is interested in learning more about common barriers related to creativity as well as and methods that can be used to increase our creative thinking.

The workshop was very easy to follow and Magdalena Nowacka used several different techniques and exercises that allowed for the group to test and develop their creative thinking. The different techniques and methods used were very easy to apply to my everyday working-environment once I came back home.

I am very pleased with the services that Magda Nowacka provided to Trans Europe Halles through this workshop. Magdalena Nowacka's energy, engagement and passion for the workshop was very inspiring.

With kind regards,
